Join us for one of these special events:

Saturday, February 12, 2022:

- 12 p.m.: "collective identity and art": Join Westchester artist Shreya Mehta in creating a collective artwork that will be interactive for all participants. We will explore the notion of identity and use text to create imagery.
- 1 p.m.: bring plastic bags and help artist Capucine Bourcart with her ongoing project "the Blanket" : <https://www.capucinebourcart.com/the-blanket>

Sunday, February 13, 2022:

- 12 p.m.: Art Coaching session with artist Esther Rosa. Rosa will explain how the process of creating art can improve awareness as well as mental, and emotional well-being. It is a tool for self discovery.
- 1 p.m.: live painting by Westchester portrait artist Maizianne

The gallery is in compliance with the city of Larchmont's covid mandates. Individual will be required to show proof of vaccination against COVID-19 or a negative antigen test result. Face masks are required in all indoor public setting.

"This exhibition explores the inherently symbolic nature of color in African culture. It also represents the involvement of women in education and the benefit of such for society as a whole."

InSight Artspace is a digital gallery that exhibits and promotes the works of female artists, specifically chosen for their visual craft, as well as their social messages, personal journeys, and passions. The intention of Insight Artspace is to stimulate exchanges between artist and audience that prove our similarities and our intimate understandings of each other, through the culture of art. With pop up shows, art fairs, digital spaces and alternative venues, Insight Artspace supports and explores art as an essential component of life, seen uniquely through the lens of the female narrator.
